STAKEHOLDER MANAGEMENT – DETAILED SCENARIO PRACTICE QUESTIONS WITH ANSWERS (TEXT VERSION)

---

25 DETAILED SCENARIOS WITH CONCISE MODEL ANSWERS

1. Community Resistance in Infrastructure Project:
   A national highway project faces protests from villagers worried about losing farmland. Government agencies want faster completion, while the community demands compensation.
   Answer: Govt—High Power, High Interest (Manage Closely); Community—Low Power, High Interest (Keep Informed). Conduct consultations and ensure transparent compensation.

2. Sponsor vs Development Team Conflict (IT Project):
   Sponsor demands weekly demos; the team feels overburdened.
   Answer: Sponsor—High Power, High Interest; Team—Medium Power, High Interest. Balance through negotiation and realistic demo schedules.

3. Government Regulator Oversight:
   Agency requires multiple safety inspections but has limited involvement.
   Answer: Regulator—High Power, Low Interest (Keep Satisfied). Provide concise progress reports and timely compliance submissions.

4. NGO Collaboration with Limited Power:
   NGO partners with city government on recycling.
   Answer: NGO—Low Power, High Interest (Keep Informed). Include them in reviews to maintain motivation and visibility.

5. Land Acquisition Delay in Construction:
   NOC pending, landowners frustrated.
   Answer: Authorities—High Power (Manage Closely); Landowners—High Interest (Keep Informed). Use legal mediation and transparent communication.

6. Conflicting Priorities in IT Startup:
   Investors want early release; developers prioritize quality.
   Answer: Investors—High Power, Medium Interest; Developers—Medium Power, High Interest. Align through cost–benefit discussions and phased releases.

7. Community Health Awareness Campaign (NGO Project):
   Low local participation despite funding.
   Answer: Community leaders—High Interest, Medium Power. Engage them as ambassadors; promote success stories to increase turnout.

8. E-Governance Portal Development:
   Different ministries delay requirements; citizens await service.

Answer: Ministries—High Power, Medium Interest (Keep Satisfied); Citizens—High Interest (Keep Informed). Set joint review meetings.

9. Safety Violations on Construction Site:
   Contractor ignores safety rules; workers complain.
   Answer: Contractor—High Power, Low Interest; Workers—Low Power, High Interest. Enforce safety training and penalties.

10. Vendor Delay in IT Implementation:
    Vendor misses deadlines; client upset.
    Answer: Vendor—Medium Power; Client—High Power. Escalate contractually; align new schedule.

11. Environmental Campaign with Budget Constraints:
    NGO must deliver with low funding.
    Answer: Donors—High Power; Volunteers—High Interest. Maintain transparency and use low-cost visibility drives.

12. Political Interference in Infrastructure Project:
    Politicians alter project design for publicity.
    Answer: Politicians—High Power, Low Interest (Keep Satisfied); Public—High Interest. Communicate benefits and keep officials updated.

13. Telecom License Approval Delays:
    Regulator delays license renewal.
    Answer: Regulator—High Power, Low Interest. Maintain compliance reports; escalate via official channels.

14. Scope Creep in Software Project:
    Client keeps adding new features.
    Answer: Client—High Power, High Interest. Use change control process and formal approvals.

15. Donor Fatigue in NGO Program:
    Donors losing interest due to slow results.
    Answer: Donors—High Power, Medium Interest. Send impact reports and success metrics to rebuild trust.

16. Contractor Dispute on Construction Project:
    Contractor claims payment for delays.
    Answer: Contractor—Medium Power; Client—High Power. Use mediation and document evidence to resolve.

17. ERP Implementation in University:
    Faculty resist using new system.
    Answer: Faculty—High Interest, Medium Power. Conduct workshops and user training sessions.

18. Import Delays in Energy Project:
    Equipment stuck in customs; finance frustrated.
    Answer: Customs—High Power, Low Interest; Finance—Medium Power. Engage customs early and provide status to finance.

19. Public Transport Modernization Program:
    Residents oppose metro line through housing area.
    Answer: Public—High Interest, Low Power; Authority—High Power. Conduct community outreach to reduce resistance.

20. Digital Transformation in Banking:
    Employees fear job loss due to automation.
    Answer: Employees—High Interest, Medium Power. Provide training, clarify roles, and highlight benefits.

21. Environmental Clearance for Dam Construction:
    Regulators delay approval; community worries about ecology.
    Answer: Regulators—High Power (Manage Closely); Community—High Interest. Ensure compliance and regular updates.

22. Software Product Testing Issues:
    Users report late bugs frustrating QA team.
    Answer: QA—Medium Power; Users—High Interest. Improve feedback cycle through weekly review sessions.

23. Hospital Information System Implementation:
    Doctors dislike new system, administrators favor it.
    Answer: Doctors—High Power, Resistant; Admin—Supportive. Conduct training and collect feedback for improvement.

24. City Beautification Program:
    Residents complain of noise; contractors hurry deadlines.
    Answer: Residents—High Interest; Contractors—High Power. Communicate schedules and apply work-hour restrictions.

25. E-Commerce Platform Launch:
    Marketing wants early launch; IT team needs testing time.
    Answer: Marketing—High Power; IT—Medium Power. Negotiate partial release with rigorous testing.

STAKEHOLDER MANAGEMENT QUICK REVISION HACKS

- High Power + High Interest → Manage Closely.
- High Power + Low Interest → Keep Satisfied.
- Low Power + High Interest → Keep Informed.
- Low Power + Low Interest → Monitor.

- Identify stakeholders early; review engagement regularly.
- Use Power–Interest or Salience Models for classification.
- Move stakeholders from Resistant → Supportive → Leading.

END OF FILE